North Carolina Medical Journal

Volume 56, January 1995 - December 1995

Where to locate Journal articles:

January	pages 1-68 (special issue: Tobacco Control)	July	pages 297-344
February	pages 69-128	August	pages 345-408
March	Roster issue	September	pages 409-472 (special issue: Medical Futility)
April	pages 129-180	October	pages 473-524
May	pages 181-244 (special issue: Occupational Health)	November	pages 525-592 (special issue: Medical History)
June	pages 245-296	December	pages 593-648

Author Index

Adelman, James U, Office Rx: a renewed professional relationship 262

Alexander, Eben Jr, Book review: William Friday—power, purpose, and American higher education 334

Allison, E Jackson Jr, Primary care physicians for North Carolina: how many are needed? where will they come from? can the need be met? 352

Altman, David G, A view from the fields 37

Ames, David, Adult depression: a treatable condition 497

Andersen, Peter, Diabetes in North Carolina: directions for the future 486

Atkins, Jim, Cancer pain management in North Carolina: physician knowledge, attitude, and behavior 289

Austin, Amanda C, Unusual presentation of trisomy 13 146

Baz, Maher A, The clinical significance of spontaneous pneumobilia 398

Bearman, Nathan S, Legislating clean air: politics, preemption, and the health of the public 14

Bent, John P III, The history of visceral larva migrans at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine 586

Biggers, W Paul, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89

Bisgrove, Eilene Z, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308

Blievernicht, Stephen W, Commentary: Laparoscopic cholecystectomy vs. open cholecystectomy 150

Blumenthal, James A, Do exercise and weight loss reduce blood pressure in patients with mild hypertension? 92

Blythe, William B, Medical history: the North Carolina connection 529

The Carolinas' contribution to the education of Dr. Richard Bright 576

Blythe, William R, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89

Boggs, Kathleen Underman, Barriers to prenatal care in Mecklenburg County: a study of 500 women 159

Bose, Carl L, Decisions about futile treatment in an intensive care nursery 462

Bradham, Douglas D, Use of subdermal contraceptive implants in a community-based family planning program: experience after two years 490

Brake, Margaret F, Tobacco-free youth: expanding focus group networks 64

Brezina, Dawn S, Back when I was an intern 612

Brown, Carolyn J, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89

Brown, J Trig, Final appointment 614

Bryan, Deborah C, Legislating clean air: politics, preemption, and the health of the public 14

Bryan, James A II, Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274

Buescher, Paul A, Recent infant mortality trends in North Carolina 302

Race, education, and mortality in North Carolina 480

Bullard, Dennis E, Commentary: Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402

Bullock, William R, Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274

Burke, Leah W, Unusual presentation

North Carolina Medical Journal

Volume 56, January 1995 - December 1995

Where to locate Journal articles:

January	pages 1-68 (special issue: Tobacco Control)	July	pages 297-344
February	pages 69-128	August	pages 345-408
March	Roster issue	September	pages 409-472 (special issue: Medical Futility)
April	pages 129-180	October	pages 473-524
May	pages 181-244 (special issue: Occupational Health)	November	pages 525-592 (special issue: Medical History)
June	pages 245-296	December	pages 593-648

Author Index

Adelman, James U, Office Rx: a renewed professional relationship 262

Alexander, Eben Jr, Book review: William Friday—power, purpose, and American higher education 334

Allison, E Jackson Jr, Primary care physicians for North Carolina: how many are needed? where will they come from? can the need be met? 352

Altman, David G, A view from the fields 37

Ames, David, Adult depression: a treatable condition 497

Andersen, Peter, Diabetes in North Carolina: directions for the future 486

Atkins, Jim, Cancer pain management in North Carolina: physician knowledge, attitude, and behavior 289

Austin, Amanda C, Unusual presentation of trisomy 13 146

Baz, Maher A, The clinical significance of spontaneous pneumobilia 398

Bearman, Nathan S, Legislating clean air: politics, preemption, and the health of the public 14

Bent, John P III, The history of visceral larva migrans at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine 586

Biggers, W Paul, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89

Bisgrove, Eilene Z, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308

Blievernicht, Stephen W, Commentary: Laparoscopic cholecystectomy vs. open cholecystectomy 150

Blumenthal, James A, Do exercise and weight loss reduce blood pressure in patients with mild hypertension? 92

Blythe, William B, Medical history: the North Carolina connection 529

The Carolinas' contribution to the education of Dr. Richard Bright 576

Blythe, William R, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89

Boggs, Kathleen Underman, Barriers to prenatal care in Mecklenburg County: a study of 500 women 159

Bose, Carl L, Decisions about futile treatment in an intensive care nursery 462

Bradham, Douglas D, Use of subdermal contraceptive implants in a community-based family planning program: experience after two years 490

Brake, Margaret F, Tobacco-free youth: expanding focus group networks 64

Brezina, Dawn S, Back when I was an intern 612

Brown, Carolyn J, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89

Brown, J Trig, Final appointment 614

Bryan, Deborah C, Legislating clean air: politics, preemption, and the health of the public 14

Bryan, James A II, Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274

Buescher, Paul A, Recent infant mortality trends in North Carolina 302

Race, education, and mortality in North Carolina 480

Bullard, Dennis E, Commentary: Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402

Bullock, William R, Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274

Burke, Leah W, Unusual presentation

of trisomy 13 146
Butler, Peter N, Shortness of breath and "refractory pneumonia": delayed diagnosis of isolated diaphragmatic rupture 280
Byerly, W Grimes Jr, Will there be members of the North Carolina Medical Society in the future? 516
Cable, Thomas A, A graduate survey of the relevance of a family practice residency curriculum 360
Comparing Norwegian and American health: jante law vs. pursuit of happiness 628
Campbell, John, Book review: Essays from the heart, Raven Press 237
Campbell, Robert, Tularemia in North Carolina, 1965-1990 314
Carlson, John, Cancer pain management in North Carolina: physician knowledge, attitude, and behavior 289
Carrasco, Vincent, Pediatric hearing evaluation and treatment: a report by the pediatric hearing healthcare team 82
Chaplin, Don C, Commentary: Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Churchill, Larry R, The ethical issues of futility from a community perspective 424
Clancy, Thomas V, Shortness of breath and "refractory pneumonia": delayed diagnosis of isolated diaphragmatic rupture 280
Clark, Robert E, Tattoo removal using the alexandrite laser 336
Cohen, Joanna E, Illegal sales of cigarettes to minors in NC 59
Cogswell, Betty E, Nicotine withdrawal symptoms: a review for primary care practitioners 40
Conn, Robert, Farewells to a friend: honoring Dr. Robert W. Prichard 530
Cooper, Robert, Community clinical oncology program as a recruitment vehicle for cancer control research: the Southeast Cancer Control Consortium experience 283
Crane, Larry M, Review: Radiologic anatomy (CD-ROM), Gold Standard Multimedia 172
Crews, Jennie, Megaloblastic cytopenia in an AIDS patient treated with trimethoprim-sulfamethoxazole 602
Crist, Takey, Commentary: The use of subdermal contraceptive implants in a community-based family planning program: experience after two years 490
Curl, Walton W, Exercise and older adults 439
Dalton, Jo Ann, A patient's guide to cancer pain: treatments can minimize suffering 153
Cancer pain management in North Carolina: physician knowledge, attitude, and behavior 289
Daniel, John T Jr, Commentary: Laparoscopic cholecystectomy vs. open cholecystectomy 150
Danis, Marion, Futility policies from the caregiver's perspective 456
Darcey, Dennis J, Health aspects of the North Carolina electronics industry 222
Davis, Gregory J, A drive in the autumn mist 328
Davis, Philip, Health partners: a systematic approach to the health care delivery problem in Buncombe County, North Carolina 266
DeGraffinreid, Cecilia R, Community clinical oncology program as a recruitment vehicle for cancer control research: the Southeast Cancer Control Consortium experience 283
Delaney, Martha J, A graduate survey of the relevance of a family practice residency curriculum 360
De La Paz, Monica A, Opthalmoscopic findings of diabetic retinopathy 339
Detterbeck, Frank C, To be or not to be an organ donor?: that is the question 170
De Ville, Kenneth, "Captain-of-the-ship" is dead: are North Carolina physicians and surgeons still liable for the acts of other health professionals? 159
Dolecek, Therese A, Community clinical oncology program as a recruitment vehicle for cancer control research: the Southeast Cancer Control Consortium experience 283
Drake, Amelia F, Pediatric hearing evaluation and treatment: a report by the pediatric hearing healthcare team 82
Edwards, Joseph A Jr, Commentary: Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Eloubeidi, Mohamad Ali S, North Carolina hospitals' policies on medical futility 420
Eng, Eugenia, Bridging the culture gap: caring for patients with sexually transmitted diseases 256
Enright, Tracy C, NC Project ASSIST: a call to action 56
Felts, John H, Farewells to a friend: honoring Dr. Robert W. Prichard 530
Abraham Flexner and medical education in North Carolina 534
Fleming, Gayle R, Commentary: Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Fortney, Judith A, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308
Frazier, Claude A, To soar "with wings, as eagles...": the day I tried hang gliding 372
Anti-inflammatory treatment of asthma in children: what strategy is appropriate? 616
Frazier, Linda M, Occupational hazards in the hospital, doctor's office, and other health care facilities 189
Gammon, Patricia J, Occupational mental health: evolving strategies for a rapidly changing world 228
Garcia, Carlos, Tattoo removal using the alexandrite laser 336
Gardella, John E, Eugenic sterilization in American and North Carolina 106
Georgi, Jeffery, Substance abuse consultation in a teaching hospital 329
Georgi, Jennifer N, Substance abuse consultation in a teaching hospital 329
Glasson, John, Commentary: Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402
Commentary 431
Godwin, Deanna, Will there be members of the North Carolina Medical Society in the future? 516
Goldstein, Adam O, Tobacco control: if not now, when? 4
Legislating clean air: politics, preemption, and the health of the public 14 An interview with Dr. Alan Blum: tobacco industry nemesis 26

Giving up smoking: a personal guide to becoming smoke-free 33
Illegal sales of cigarettes to minors in NC 59
Graham, John B, UNC's deans of medicine: reminscences of a septugenarian 562
Greenberg, Gary N, Occupational risks in the rubber industry 215
Gullette, Elizabeth Duffy, Do exercise and weight loss reduce blood pressure in patients with mild hypertension? 92
Hall, Mark A, Futility policies and the law 450
Halperin, Edward C, Book reviews: Hidden illness in the White House, Duke University Press 237
Book reviews: Blow me a kiss, Miss Lilly, Harper Collins; What about the children: dealing with death, Wake County Public Schools; Bubby, me, and memories, Union of American Hebrew Congregations 238
"Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274
Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402
The North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, Dr. Clyde Henry Donnell, and the health education of blacks 570
Book review: The illustrated history of medicine, Harold Starke Publishers, Ltd. 574
Book review: A way of thinking: a primer on the art of being a doctor, essays by Eugene A. Stead, Jr., MD, Carolina Academic Press 635
Halperin, Sharon, Book review: Exercise handouts for rehabilitation, Aspen Publishers 173
Hansen, William B, Use of subdermal contraceptive implants in a community-based family planning program: experience after two years 490
Harker, Margaret Nelsen, Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Harley, Carolyn, Fear and trembling in North Carolina: the barriers to primary medical and dental care for AIDS patients 252
Harrell, George T, Multiple hereditary telangiectases with recurring hemorrhage: a rare disease of clinical interest to Osler 583
Headen, Sandra, Tobacco-free youth: expanding focus group networks 64
Hendricks, William M, Protecting yourself from the sun: are you allergic to your sunscreen? 269
Getting a great tan without damaging your skin: artificial tanning products 269
Hennington, Mark H, To be or not to be an organ donor?: that is the question 170
Henrich, Douglas E, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89
Hodgson, Patricia K, Dying at home: a review of the DNR process 97
Hoffman, Carl M, Depression in pregnancy: a frequent problem that is frequently missed 212
Houston, Thomas P, The role of organized medicine and the AMA in tobacco control 20
Hunter, Rebecca H, The interdisciplinary geriatric team evaluation project: a new approach to the delivery of geriatric medicine in geographically remote locations 502
Iarovici, Doris, Book review: First photographs of heaven: poems that make Earth a better place to be, Nightshade Press 291
Imbus, Harold R, Occupational health in the textile industry 206
Jackson, George W, Occupational hazards in the hospital, doctor's office, and other health care facilities 189
Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274
Jackson, Rudolph S, Tobacco-free youth: expanding focus group networks 64
Janes, Cynthia, Health partners: a systematic approach to the health care delivery problem in Buncombe County, North Carolina 266
Janeway, Richard, Farewells to a friend: honoring Dr. Robert W. Prichard 530
Joyner, Raymond E, Book review: The prostate book, W.W. Norton and Co. 292
Kanof, Elizabeth P, Treacherous ticks: Rocky Mountain spotted fever, tick paralysis, lyme disease, and erhlichiosis 319
Katz, Vern L, HIV infection in pregnancy: a review of current developments 102
Kaufman, Michael D, Immune-based therapy of multiple sclerosis 379
Kays, Charles R, Shortness of breath and "refractory pneumonia": delayed diagnosis of isolated diaphragmatic rupture 280
Kelly, Bettye, A social worker's view of futility policy issues 427
King, Nancy M P, Ethical and legal barriers to futility policies 444
Kirby, Lemuel B, Jejunal diverticula: an unusual case of massive gastrointestinal hemorrhage 605
Kobrinski, Edward J, Primary care physicians for North Carolina: how many are needed? where will they come from? can the need be met? 352
Kopelman, Loretta M, Ethical disputes over futile treatments 458
Koruda, Mark J, Jejunal diverticula: an unusual case of massive gastrointestinal hemorrhage 605
Kegler, Michelle Crozier, The burden of diabetes in North Carolina 141
Konsler, Gwen, Cancer pain management in North Carolina: physician knowledge, attitude, and behavior 289
Kraus, Barry B, A Civil War epidemic: yellow fever in Wilmington, North Carolina, 1862 580
Kraybill, Ernest N, Decisions about futile treatment in an intensive care nursery 462
Kussin, Peter, Beginning a conversation on medical futility in North Carolina 418
Lahoud, Chawki A, Unusual presentation of trisomy 13 146
Lamb, Betty, Diabetes in North Carolina: directions for the future 486
Landis, Suzanne, Health partners: a systematic approach to the health care delivery problem in Buncombe County,

North Carolina 266
Langley, Ricky, Protecting workers and their families in North Carolina 186
Tularemia in North Carolina, 1965-1990 314
Leiss, Jack K, Race, education, and mortality in North Carolina 480
Lengerich, Eugene J, The prevalence of smoking and its impact on the health of North Carolinians 9
The burden of diabetes in North Carolina 141
Levin, Edward D, Nicotine as a therapeutic drug 48
Levine, Ronald H, Conjoint report: to the North Carolina Medical Society and the North Carolina Commission for Health Services 77
Lim, Wilma, HIV infection in pregnancy: a review of current developments 102
Lowe JV, Substance abuse consultation in a teaching hospital 329
Lofy, Laura J, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308
Lyle, Carl B Jr, Health care costs: lessons from 1932 about a chronic crisis 541
Mack, Ronald B, Khat on a hot tin roof: catha edulis intoxication 112
Between a rock and a charybdisian place: baclofen (lioresal) overdose 325
"When I have fears that I may cease to be...": hydrogen peroxide poisoning 624
Malek, Sally Herndon, NC Project ASSIST: a call to action 56
Mansfield, Christopher J, Primary care physicians for North Carolina: how many are needed? where will they come from? can the need be met? 352
Martin, Jim D, Illegal sales of cigarettes to minors in NC 59
Mathew, Roy J, Substance abuse consultation in a teaching hospital 329
Maxwell, J Gary, Shortness of breath and "refractory pneumonia": delayed diagnosis of isolated diaphragmatic rupture 280
McLelland, John III, Davis hospital: a manifestation of Dr. James Davis 544
McLeod, Jonnie, Barriers to prenatal care in Mecklenburg County: a study of 500 women 159
Mecklenburg County Medical Society, Prenatal Care Committee, Prenatal care is essential to mother and child: a baby's life depends on it 211
Meyer, Robert E, Recent infant mortality trends in North Carolina 302
Mittelmark, Maurice B, Use of subdermal contraceptive implants in a community-based family planning program: experience after two years 490
Montana, Gustavo S, Book review: Medical Spanish for every situation, Houston-Magellin Publishing Co. 334
Moon, Samuel D, Occupational health issues in the chemical and pharmaceutical industries 196
Murphy, Donald J, Lessons from communities in conversation: the Colorado experience 428
Neelon, Francis A, Commentary: Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274
The fall of the house of medicine? 600
Nesbit, Frederick, Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Norman, Marilyn, The burden of diabetes in North Carolina 141
Diabetes in North Carolina: directions for the future 486
North Carolina Medical Society, Tobacco Control Subcommittee, You can stop smoking: North Carolina doctors offer tips to quit 557
O'Connor, Thomas, How important is tobacco in North Carolina?: facts belie public perception 28
O'Meara, James J, Acute myocardial infarction: a guide for North Carolina doctors 390
Pappas, Theodore N, Commentary: Laparoscopic cholecystectomy vs. open cholecystectomy 150
Paskett, Electra D, Community clinical oncology program as a recruitment vehicle for cancer control research: the Southeast Cancer Control Consortium experience 283
Peacock, Erle E Jr, Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274
Pearson, Ellyn B, Decisions about futile treatment in an intensive care nursery 462
Pillsbury, Harold C, The Carolina children's communicative disorders program: an opportunity for North Carolina's children 89
Pisetsky, David S, Consultation at twilight 608
Porter, William G, The healing power of parable 610
Powell, Gwendolyn S, Occupational health issues in the chemical and pharmaceutical industries 196
Prosnitz, Leonard R, Book review: Parade of the dead: a US army physician's memoir of imprisonment by the Japanese, McFarland and Co., Inc. 574
Rabiner, Donna J, The interdisciplinary geriatric team evaluation project: a new approach to the delivery of geriatric medicine in geographically remote locations 502
Reifler, Burton V, Postpartum psychiatric disorders: a guide for the practicing physician 386
Reinhart, Charles L, Snapshot of an illness 520
Richardson, William J, Commentary: Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402
Ricketts, Thomas C, III, Primary care physicians for North Carolina: how many are needed? where will they come from? can the need be met? 352
Riski, Maureen Cassidy, Pediatric hearing evaluation and treatment: a report by the pediatric hearing healthcare team 82
Rose, Jed E, Nicotine as a therapeutic drug 48
Rosen, Richard J, Smoking cessation: cornerstone of prevention in primary care 53
Rozear, Marvin P, Commentary: Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402
Caught in Clio's grip: my romance with the muse of [medical] history 554
Book review: Taking care: the legacy of Soma Weiss, Eugene Stead, and Paul Beeson, Medical Education and Research Foundation 634
Ryan, Kevin, Recent infant mortality trends in North Carolina 302

Sanchez, Clare J, The tobacco control task force of the North Carolina Medical Society 24
Adverse drug reactions in a state psychiatric hospital 506
Sanders, Joseph, Tobacco-free youth: expanding focus group networks 64
Schuster, Jennifer, Bridging the culture gap: caring for patients with sexually transmitted diseases 256
Shami, Paul J, Megaloblastic cytopenia in an AIDS patient treated with trimethoprim-sulfamethoxazole 602
Sharara, Ala I, The clinical significance of spontaneous pneumobilia 398
Shepard, Claudia P, Postpartum psychiatric disorders: a guide for the practicing physician 386
Shepherd, Walter L, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308
Sherwood, Andrew, Do exercise and weight loss reduce blood pressure in patients with mild hypertension? 92
Shiferaw, Beletshachew, Use of subdermal contraceptive implants in a community-based family planning program: experience after two years 490
Siebens, David P, Occupational hazards in the furniture industry 202
Silberman, Harold R, Commentary: "Urinate in the cup, doctor" 274
Simmons, J Dale, Fear and trembling in North Carolina: the barriers to primary medical and dental care for AIDS patients 252
Simpson, Ross J, Acute myocardial infarction: a guide for North Carolina doctors 390
Smith, Harmon L Jr, Religious aspects of futile care 460
Smith, Jason, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308
Spencer, David, The bed wetting blues: staying dry during the night 375
Spudis, Edward V, It's the cortex, stupid 514
Spurr, Charles L, Community clinical oncology program as a recruitment vehicle for cancer control research: the Southeast Cancer Control Consortium experience 283
Stanley, Len C, Illegal sales of cigarettes to minors in NC 59
Steel, J Griffith, Counterpoint: It's the cortex, stupid 515
Stell, Lance K, Real futility: historical beginnings and continuing debate about futile treatment 432
Stenberg, Craig R, Occupational mental health: evolving strategies for a rapidly changing world 228
Stoodt, Georjean, The tobacco control task force of the North Carolina Medical Society 24
The burden of diabetes in North Carolina 141
Diabetes in North Carolina: directions for the future 486
Stubbs, Thomas M, Barriers to prenatal care in Mecklenburg County: a study of 500 women 159
Sugarman, Jeremy, A community policy on futility?: a conversation of the North Carolina community 415
North Carolina hospitals' policies on medical futility 420
Sullivan, Lee, The burden of diabetes in North Carolina 141
Summerlin, Harry H Jr, Matters medical/matters legal: going to court in a non-defendant, non-adversarial role 510
Swanson, Jeffrey W, North Carolina hospitals' policies on medical futility 420
Tapson, Victor F, "Lung cancer" 174
Tate, David A, Acute myocardial infarction: a guide for North Carolina doctors 390
Thomann, Wayne R, Occupational hazards in the hospital, doctor's office, and other health care facilities 189
Thomas, James C, Bridging the culture gap: caring for patients with sexually transmitted diseases 256
Thyrum, Elizabeth Towner, Do exercise and weight loss reduce blood pressure in patients with mild hypertension? 92
Tippens, Lane, Occupational hazards in the furniture industry 202
Vance, Richard P, Eugenic sterilization and The Bell Curve 109
Visness, Cynthia M, Racial differences in North Carolina infant mortality 308
Von Seggern, Randal L, Office Rx: a renewed professional relationship 262
Warren, David, Traditional legal principles underlie occupational and environmental medicine liability 234
The legislative role in defining medical futility 453
Washington, Chanetta R, Community-based hypertension programs 138
Waugh, Robert, Do exercise and weight loss reduce blood pressure in patients with mild hypertension? 92
Weaver, Van D, Adverse drug reactions in a state psychiatric hospital 506
Weil, Thomas P, Could changes in the health care system force North Carolina to establish a health services commission? 366
Weiland, Douglas J, Commentary: Three rear ends on the beach: debating the ethics of medical advertising 402
Welham, Richard T, Book review: Ship's doctor, Naval Institute Press 636
Westman, Eric C, Nicotine as a therapeutic drug 48
Williams, Charles E, Dr. Edmund Burke Haywood and Civil War medicine in Raleigh, North Carolina 548
Williams, Marcus L, Acute myocardial infarction: a guide for North Carolina doctors 390
Williams, Mark E, The interdisciplinary geriatric team evaluation project: a new approach to the delivery of geriatric medicine in geographically remote locations 502
Wilson, James S Jr, Commentary: Laparoscopic cholecystectomy vs. open cholecystectomy 150
Wilson, William H, Substance abuse consultation in a teaching hospital 329
Woosley, John T, Jejunal diverticula: an unusual case of massive gastrointestinal hemorrhage 605
Work, David R, Commentary: Counseling of patients by pharmacists: blessing or curse? 115
Young, Joyce M, Health aspects of the NC electronics industry 222

❑

Subject Index

Advertising, medical ethics of 402
AIDS, see HIV
Alexandrite laser, for tattoo removal 336
AMA, tobacco control policy 20
Asthma, treatment in children 616
Baclofen, overdose 325
Bed wetting 375
Blum, Alan, interview 26
Bright, Richard 576
Buncombe County, health care delivery 266
Cancer, pain (patient info) 153
lung (limerick) 174 community clinical oncology 283
physician knowledge about pain management 289
Catha edulis, intoxication 112
Chemical industry, occupational health issues in 196
Cholecystectomy, laparoscopic vs. open 150
Cigarettes, (also see tobacco control) illegal sales to NC minors 59
youth focus groups 64
Civil War medicine 548, 554, 580
Contraception, subdermal implants 490
Costs of health care, 1932 vs. 1995 541
Counseling, of patients by pharmacists 115
Davis, James, and Davis hospital 544
Depression,
in pregnancy 212
adult 497
Diabetes,
in NC 141, 486
diabetic retinopathy 339
Diaphragmatic rupture 280
Diverticula, jejunal 605
DNR orders 97
Donnell, Clyde Henry, and NC Mutual Life Insurance Co., health education of blacks 570 Drugs,
testing of new Duke house staff 274
adverse reactions in a state psychiatric hospital 506
Dual diagnosis ward, at Duke 329
Ehrlichiosis 319
Electronics industry, occupational health aspects of 222
Eugenic sterilization 106
Exercise, and older adults 439
Family practice residency program, in Greensboro 360
Flexner, Abraham, and medical education in NC 534
Friday, William, review of book on former UNC president 334
Funeral home, one doctor's experience 614
Furniture industry, occupational hazards in 202
Futile treatment, September issue:
editorials 415, 427, 431, 460
medical futility in NC 42
ethical issues from a community perspective 424
the Colorado experience 428 historical beginnings and debate 432 ethical, legal barriers 444 futility policies and the law 450 legislative role in defining medical futility 453 futility policies from a caregiver's perspective 456 ethical disputes over treatments 458 decisions about futile treatment in an intensive care nursery 462 Gastrointestinal hemorrhage 605
Genetics, Trisomy 13 case report 146
Geriatric medicine, in rural areas 502
GUIDe, (Guidelines for Use of Intensive Care in Denver) 428
Hang gliding, first-person 372
Haywood, Edmund Burke, and Civil War medicine in Raleigh, NC 548
Health care delivery to AIDS patients 252
to STD patients 256
in Buncombe County 266
Health care facilities, occupational hazards in 189
Health care reform 366, 541
Health education, for blacks 570
Health Watch,
smoking cessation 33
DNR process 97
cancer pain 153
pregnancy/prenatal care 211
sunscreen allergy and tanning products 269
ticks and disease 319
bed wetting 375
exercise and older adults 439
adult depression 497
tips to quit smoking 557
foot and shoe fitting problems 619
Hearing, see pediatric hearing
Heart attack, treatment guide 390
first-person 520
HIV,
infection in pregnancy 102
barriers to primary medical and dental care 252 megaloblastic cytopenia in an AIDS patient treated with trimethoprim-sulfamethoxazole 602
Hospitals, in NC, medical futility policies 420
Hydrogen peroxide poisoning 624
Hypertension, effects of exercise and weight 92
community-based programs 138
Infant mortality,
trends in NC 302
racial differences in NC 308
Intensive care, futile treatment in UNC nursery 462
Internship, first-person account 612
Jejunal diverticula 605
Legal issues,
and futility policies 444, 450
physician primer for testifying in court 510 Liability, of physicians and surgeons for acts of other health professionals 166
in occupational and environmental medicine 234

Lyme disease 319
Maternal health, (also see infant mortality) barriers to prenatal care in Mecklenburg County 159
Medical education,
Abraham Flexner's report 534
UNC's medical school deans 562
first-person account of internship 612
Medical ethics, (also, see futile treatment) degrees of "humanness," editorial 514
Medical futility (see futile treatment)
Medical history, November issue:
editorials 529, 554
Abraham Flexner and medical education in NC 534
Health care costs, 1932 vs. 1995 541
Davis hospital 544
Dr. Edmund Burke Haywood and Civil War medicine in Raleigh, NC 548
UNC's deans of medicine 562
NC Mutual Life Insurance Company, Dr. Clyde Henry Donnell, and health education of blacks 570
Carolinas' contribution to education of Dr. Richard Bright 576
Yellow fever in Wilmington, NC, 1862 580
Multiple hereditary telangiectases with recurring hemorrhage 583
History of visceral larva migrans at Bowman Gray School of Medicine 586
Megaloblastic cytopenia, in AIDS patient 602
Mental health, occupational 228
Mortality,
infant 302
infant by race 308
adult, by race and education 480
Multiple hereditary telangiectases, with recurring hemorrhage 583
Multiple sclerosis 379
Myocardial infarction (see heart attack)
Neonatology, futile treatment in UNC nursery 462
NC economy, and tobacco 28
NCMS,
Tobacco Control Task Force 24, 557
membership 516
NC Mutual Life Insurance Co. 570
NC Project ASSIST 56
Nicotine,
withdrawal symptoms 40
therapeutic uses 48
Norplant® 490
Norwegian health (vs. American) 628
Occupational health, May issue:
editorials 186
in health care facilities 189
in chemical and pharmaceutical industries 196
in furniture industry 202
in textile industry 206
in rubber industry 215
in electronics industry 222
occupational mental health 228 liability issues 234
Organ donation 170
Organized medicine,
AMA tobacco control policy 20
NCMS membership 516
Pediatric hearing,
report by pediatric hearing healthcare team 82
Carolina Children's Communicative Disorders Program 89
Pharmaceutical industry, occupational health issues in 196
Pharmacists, counseling of patients 115
Physician extenders 262
Physician supply, retention, in NC 352
Pneumobilia, spontaneous 398
Poisoning,
catha edulis 112
baclofen (lioresal) 325
hydrogen peroxide 624
Portsmouth Island, US Marine Hospital 554
Postpartum psychiatric disorders 386
Preemption, and clean air legislation 14
Prenatal health,
in Mecklenburg County 159
general patient information 211 depression in pregnancy 212
Prichard, Robert W, tributes 530
"Refractory pneumonia," symptoms of 280
Religion, and futile care 460
Residency program, family practice, in Greensboro 360
Rocky Mountain spotted fever 319
Rubber industry, occupational risks of 215
Sexually transmitted diseases 256
Smoking, see tobacco control
Smoking cessation 33, 53, 557
Southeast Cancer Control Consortium 283
State health director's report 77
Sterilization, eugenic 106
Substance abuse consultation 329
Sunscreen, allergy, and tanning products 269
Tattoo removal 336
Textile industry, occupational health in 206
Ticks, and disease 314, 319
Tobacco control, January issue:
editorial 4
impact of smoking on health of North Carolinians 9
clean air legislation 14
role of AMA and NCMS 20, 24 interview with Dr. Alan Blum 26
how important is tobacco in NC? 28
smoking cessation 33, 53 (557)
agricultural issues 37
nicotine withdrawal 40
nicotine as a therapeutic drug 48
NC Project ASSIST 56
illegal cigarette sales to NC minors 59
tobacco-free youth 64
Trimethoprim-sulfamethoxazole, in AIDS case 602
Trisomy 13, case report 141
Tularemia 314
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, medical school deans 562
US Marine Hospital, at Portsmouth Island 554
Utilization review, fictional account 608
Visceral larva migrans, and research at Bowman Gray School of Medicine 586
Yellow fever, in Wilmington, NC, 1862 580

❑